Following on from the very constructive ideas emerging from our October prayer sessions, we are convening a gathering of folk this morning who are willing to help with our Christmas plans including distribution of Christmas invitations and booklets. etc. We will discuss the implementation of other practical suggestions as well, such as outdoor carol singing. Please join us if at all possible. The success of these proposals to open our doors and reach out to our neighbours depends on us all doing what we can and playing our part – praying, preparing and participating together in the Spirit’s strength and for God’s glory. If you are unable to stay this morning and would like to offer help please contact Andrew or myself. Paul.
